Standard Condition #2: The defendant shall report to the probation officer in a manner and frequency directed by the court or probation officer.

Supporting Evidence: On February 2, 2016, the offender reported to the U.S. Probation Office for the purpose of an intake. It was at that time the offender was informed of all mandatory, standard, and special conditions of supervised release. The offender acknowledged she understood her obligation to the Court.

Ms. Hanlan has violated her conditions of supervised release by failing to report to her probation officer as directed.

On December 21, 2017, Ms. Hanlan was provided an appointment slip by the undersigned for a scheduled probation appointment to take place at the U.S. Probation Office on January 2, 2018. On December 29, 2017, Ms. Hanlan left a voice mail for the undersigned stating she was being discharged from the Frontier Behavioral Health Stabilization Unit and that she would be returning to her residence with no cell phone, and further acknowledged she would be present at the scheduled probation appointment on January 2, 2018. Probation in any manner. On January 3, 2018, the undersigned made contact with Ms. Hanlan's alternate contact and mother, Glenna Ploblete. Ms. Ploblete informed the undersigned it was her understanding Ms. Hanlan was at her residence, and that if she had contact with her she would tell her to contact U.S. Probation. On January 16, 2018, the summons for Ms. Hanlan to appear at the U.S. Courthouse reference the petition filed on December 27, 2017, was returned as unexecuted; thus, Ms. Hanlan failed to appear for her initial appearance before U.S. Magistrate Judge Rodgers. Ms. Hanlan's whereabouts are unknown and she appears to be evading supervision.

The U.S. Probation Office respectfully recommends the Court to incorporate the violation(s) contained in this petition in future proceedings with the violation(s) previously reported to the Court, and that the Court issue a warrant.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.
